No Insider shall trade in securities of the Company when in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information.

No Insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any UPSI relating to the Company or its securities to any person except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

SCHEDULE B [See sub-regulation (1) of regulation 9]

Minimum Standards for Code of Conduct to Regulate, Monitor and Report Trading by Insiders

1. The compliance officer shall report to the board of directors and in particular, shall provide reports to the Chairman of the Audit Committee, if any, or to the Chairman of the board of directors at such frequency as may be stipulated by the board of directors, but not less than once in a year.
2. All information shall be handled within the organization on a need-to know basis and no unpublished price sensitive information shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of the legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations. The code of conduct shall contain norms for appropriate Chinese Walls procedures, and processes for permitting any designated person to - "cross the wall".

CHINESE WALL

To prevent the misuse of UPSI, the Company has adopted a Chinese wall policy which separates those departments which routinely have access to UPSI, considered - inside areas from those departments which deal with sale/marketing or other departments providing support services, considered - public areas.

As per the said policy:

- The Employees in the inside areas are not allowed to communicate any UPSI to anyone in the public areas.
 - The Employees in inside area may be physically separated from the Employees in public area.
 - The demarcation of various departments as inside area shall be determined by the Compliance Officers in consultation with the Board.
 - Only in exceptional circumstances, Employees from the public areas are brought over the wall and given UPSI on the basis of - need to know
3. Designated Persons and immediate relatives of designated persons in the organization shall be governed by an internal code of conduct governing dealing in securities.
 4. Designated persons may execute trades subject to compliance with these regulations. Towards this end, a notional trading window shall be used as an instrument of monitoring trading by the designated persons. The trading window shall be closed when the compliance officer determines that a designated person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such unpublished price sensitive information relates. Designated persons and their immediate relatives shall not trade in securities when the trading window is closed.

Trading Window

The Trading window shall be closed from the end of every quarter till 48 hours after the declaration of financial results of respective quarter, half-year, or financial year, as the case may be. All the Designated Persons shall strictly conduct all their Trading in the Securities of the Company only when the Trading Window is open and no Designated Person or their Immediate Relatives shall trade in the Securities of the Company during the period the Trading Window is closed or during any other similar period as may be specified by the Compliance Officer from time-to-time.

5. The timing for re-opening of the trading window shall be determined by the compliance officer taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, which in any event shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available.
6. When the trading window is open, trading by designated persons shall be subject to preclearance by the compliance officer, if the value of the proposed trades is above such thresholds as the board of directors may stipulate.
7. Prior to approving any trades, the compliance officer shall be entitled to seek declarations to the effect that the applicant for pre-clearance is not in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information. He shall also have regard to whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.
8. The code of conduct shall specify any reasonable timeframe, which in any event shall not be more than seven trading days, within which trades that have been pre-cleared have to be executed by the designated person, failing which fresh pre-clearance would be needed for the trades to be executed.
9. The code of conduct shall specify the period, which in any event shall not be less than six months, within which a designated person who is permitted to trade shall not execute a contra trade. The compliance officer may be empowered to grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing provided that such relaxation does not violate these regulations. Should a contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Board for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by the Board under the Act.
10. The code of conduct shall stipulate such formats as the board of directors deems necessary for making applications for pre-clearance, reporting of trades executed, reporting of decisions not to trade after securing pre-clearance, and for reporting level of holdings in securities at such intervals as may be determined as being necessary to monitor compliance with these regulations.
11. Without prejudice to the power of the Board under the Act, the code of conduct shall stipulate the sanctions and disciplinary actions, including wage freeze, suspension etc., that may be imposed, by the listed Company required to formulate a code of conduct under sub-regulation (1) of regulation 9, for the contravention of the code of conduct.

12. The code of conduct shall specify that in case it is observed by the listed Company, required to formulate a code of conduct under sub-regulation (1) and sub-regulation (2) of regulation 9, that there has been a violation of these regulations, they shall inform the Board promptly.
13. Designated persons shall be required to disclose names and Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law of the following persons to the company on an annual basis and as and when the information changes:
- immediate relatives
 - persons with whom such designated person(s) shares a material financial relationship
 - Phone, mobile and cell numbers which are used by them

In addition, the names of educational institutions from which designated persons have graduated and names of their past employers shall also be disclosed on a one-time basis.

Explanation - The term "material financial relationship" shall mean a relationship in which one person is a recipient of any kind of payment such as by way of a loan or gift during the immediately preceding twelve months, equivalent to at least 25% of such payer's annual income but shall exclude relationships in which the payment is based on arm's length transactions.

14. Listed entities shall have a process for how and when people are brought 'inside' on sensitive transactions. Individuals should be made aware of the duties and responsibilities attached to the receipt of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information, and the liability that attaches to misuse or unwarranted use of such information.

STRUCTURED DIGITAL DATABASE

The Company shall maintain a Structured Digital Database containing the names of such persons or entities, as the case may be, with whom UPSI is shared along with the Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law. Such database shall:

- Be maintained with adequate internal controls and checks;
- Be time stamped;
- Not be outsourced;
- Be preserved for a minimum period of eight years.

TRADING PLAN

An Insider shall be entitled to formulate a Trading Plan and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure.

The Trading Plan shall:

- Not entail commencement of trading earlier than six months from public disclosure;
- Not entail trading for the period between twentieth trading day prior to last day of financial period and second trading day after disclosure of financial results;
- Be for a minimum period of twelve months;

- Not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- Set out either value or number of securities to be traded and nature of trade.

Upon approval, the Trading Plan shall be disclosed to the stock exchange(s) where the securities are listed.

CONTRAVENTION

Violation of this Code shall attract disciplinary action including wage freeze, suspension, recovery, clawback, and termination. In addition, SEBI may initiate action under the SEBI Act, 1992 which may include monetary penalty and/or imprisonment.

Any amount collected under this clause shall be remitted to the Board for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by the Board under the Act.
